Blessings Prince of Peace Family!

October is upon us, and I always find this time of the year interesting. We are coming off of a summer of exuberance where many of us were able to travel and hopefully all of us found some time for some rest and relaxation. One thing I have learned on this journey is that rest is extremely important, and God commands that we rest. I implore you to find some time to take a step back and sit with God.

What makes this time of the year interesting is the anticipation of what is next. As we come off of the summer and start to enjoy the change of weather, with the exception of the need for the ark last week, the calendar starts to become full.

We have started our worship schedule changes and are blessed to continue to have Pastor Campbell and now Pastor Schonberg serving the Sacrament each week to us as we accept the Glory of God over our lives and in our hearts.

While we have various activities at Prince of Peace on the horizon, Reformation Sunday (reminder there will be one service at 10:15) is the next event on the church calendar and that will be in place of our fellowship Sunday. Then, in the blink of an eye Thanksgiving will be upon us and then Advent begins. It becomes extremely busy, extremely fast, so again - REST!!!

Our Sunday Bible Studies have been very exciting. We did pivot this past Sunday, and I thank you all for your contribution to my assignment. Please join us as we continue in our study of John and 2nd Samuel. The anticipated schedule for October will be listed below and is (as we have learned) subject to change.

It is an exciting time, and I look forward to seeing you all!!!

In His Service,
Vicar Brandon
